Responses by Cops Trying To Justify Their Exploitative Jobs, and Their Easy Refutations stupid response : "I am just trying to provide for my family!"

refutation : "So it's your family over everyone else's?"

stupid response : "I am just doing my job!"

refutation : Nuremberg Trials stupid response : "I'll be there when you call for help!"

refutation : "We have Firemen and EMTs for that. Your help usually ends with the person you are 'assisting' either dead or incarcerated."

stupid response : "Have a great day!" (the typical defenseless schutze blow off) refutation : "A polite cop does not excuse the decades of extortion, violence, and oppression. Rodney King was in 1991 but your militarized corporate enforcers are still out here beating our asses, killing us, and stealing our wages."

stupid response : "Bad guys would take over without us."

refutation : "The 5 actual genuine bad guys you get annually doesn't justify allllllllll the force, fear, extortion, violence, and oppression. I think that the good citizens could book the depraved without your jackboot assistance, but then you would arrest us. " stupid response: "If we didn't write tickets, people would speed and die."

refutation: "The first speeding ticket was in 1904. It doesn't stop speeding, it generates state revenue."

stupid response: "If we didn't write inspection tickets, people would die."

refutation: "$150 to the state is not $150 towards them getting their mode of transportation up to state demands. The majority of crashes are human decision error not mechanical failure or from going 65 in a 55."
